Mark Horton understands the need for quality legal representation. Mark is a former prosecutor who has handled over 7,000 criminal cases. He has also represented private clients in civil matters throughout his career. After years of prosecuting for two municipalities in the metro area, Mark saw the need for a law firm that listens to its clients. He opened Horton Law Offices LLC to do just that while assisting clients through a complex and often very slow judicial system. He understands his clients' needs and aggressively advocates for their rights in court. Horton Law Offices LLC practices in DWI/DUI defense, general criminal defense, estate planning, and plaintiffs' personal injury. When you hire the Horton Law Offices LLC, be assured your legal needs and concerns will be addressed. Offices are located throughout the metro area.
